CALLING ALL CANADIAN FOOTBALL OFFICIALS

The Calgary Football Officials Association is proud to host the 2020 CFOA National Conference next May 2020. Our conference theme is “Building the Game Together,” and we invite all football officials from across Canada to participate in this exciting event. The conference will be held at the Hotel Arts, downtown Calgary on the weekend of May 1 - 3, 2020

The gala banquet will be Saturday night, May 2, at the amazing Studio Bell facility featuring keynote speaker Randy Ambrosie, Commissioner of the Canadian Football League. Other confirmed speakers and participants include:

- Terry Gregson, former NHL referee and Executive VP/Director of Officiating
- Tom Higgins, former CFL coach and Director of Officiating
- Darryl Baron, Evaluation Lead for Canada West

Further conference participants and conference details will be available soon. Please visit our website, cfoa2020.com, for updates and registration information as it becomes finalized. Check back often for updates!

Save the date, and we look forward to welcoming you to Calgary!
